L. ARANYANI

Haresh Mirpuri, an Indonesian entrepreneur and long-time advocate of fair labor throughout southwest Asia, founded the luxury handbag brand Aranyani in 2016. After 20 years in the garment manufacturing industry, Haresh saw an opportunity to build a luxury brand that could spread Indian artistry and the message of sustainability across the world.

This collection reflects India's long tradition of luxury, interpreted in a contemporary aesthetic. The collection's two lines include Kesuda, named after the exotic flower, and Stone Drops, named for the semi-precious stones that are used in detailing. Each line reflects and evokes the eternal beauty of India.
